

PENINSULA
ARTS
WITH PLYMOUTH
UNIVERSITY

EXHIBITIONS
FILM
LECTURES
MUSIC
PERFORMANCE

PENINSULA ARTS
ROMANIAN FESTIVAL 2011
BOOK LAUNCH, THEATRE AND DANCE

Image copyright © Ciprian Paleologu 2011

www.peninsula-arts.co.uk

University of Plymouth Press

ROMANIAN CULTURAL INSTITUTE

Thursday November 24

- 19.00 Cultural Café at the Reservoir Café Romanian Cuisine

Friday & Saturday November 25 and 26

- 10.00–18.00 Crosspoint Romanian Theatre Photo Exhibition

Friday November 25

- 14.15–16.00 Jill Craigie Cinema Romanian theatre critic, Cristina Modreanu will give a presentation on Romanian theatre today
FREE admission, Ticket required – Peninsula Arts Box Office
- 17.30–18.30 Crosspoint BBC journalist and presenter Rosie Goldsmith leads a panel to introduce Romanian authors Ion Mureşan The Book of Winter and other Poems and Nicolae Manolescu French Themes. Readings by TV and stage actress, Cristina Catalina
- 18.30–19.00 Crosspoint Play reading by Theatre and Performance students
- 19.00–19.30 Crosspoint Refreshments. Author signing
- 19.30–21.00 Theatre 1 Theatre performance: First You're Born by Line Knutzon, directed by Radu Afrim, with English subtitles
Tickets £5, concessions £3, Peninsula Arts Box Office

Saturday November 26

- 12.00–18.00 Crosspoint Dance performance and installation – I am myself by dancer/choreographer Cosmin Manolescu: This is a durational performance and audience are invited to come and go as they wish during this period
- 15.00–15.45 Crosspoint Stage 2 BA Dance Theatre students perform choreographic material generated from the dance residency with Cosmin Manolescu
- 18.00–19.00 Crosspoint Cosmin Manolescu will give a Lecture
Presentation on Contemporary Romanian Dance Today

ROLAND LEVINSKY BUILDING | PLYMOUTH UNIVERSITY