

JOINT EXHIBITION @ EUNIC STAND

→ Popular Hungarian comic-book artist Attila Futaki brings selected pictures from his newest French comic book. Levente Németh (Levi) presents his first historical graphic novel, Kings and Crosses, prepared for the Belgian market.

→ Romanian artist Alexandru Ciubotariu invites the viewers to discover the spectacular way in which two different styles of drawing come together at his exhibition One Artist, Two Different Styles. Mircea Pop displays Animal Illustrations, a mini expo presenting detailed and precise illustrations made for the Romanian translation of the book Birds, Beasts and Relatives by Gerald Durrell.

→ The Estonian exhibition showcases an upcoming graphic novel, Kahe noodi vahel (Between two notes) by Joonas Sildre, based on the life of the celebrated Estonian composer Arvo Pärt. A sample chapter from the book, to be published in October 2018, is presented along with a QR link to Pärt's music.

→ Turkey's mini expo is entitled Songs of the Birds and is inspired by the eponymous book written by great Sufi and distinguished littérateur/poet Feridüddin Attar in the 12th century. It takes you to witness the journey of a bird, which makes our world more beautiful with their colours and twitters.

→ Polish artist Berenika Kołomycka presents a small overview of her drawings from That Night a Monster and Tiny Fox and Great Boar, while Joanna Karpowicz will put some original comic artworks on display.

→ Czech Centre Brussels presents the 12 best contemporary Czech illustrators and comic artists in their exhibition 12 Mondes.

→ The Latvian comics publisher presents the results of their cooperation with Pop Up Creators Project. During a 2-week summer school in 2017, 19 young Latvian artists, guided by Hamish Steele and Alexis Deacen, created comics in leporello format.
