

"Romanian Days in the National Park De Hoge Veluwe"
June 23 – 24, 2018

Roemeense Dagen

Visit the Fair - Taste & buy

More than 25 outstanding craftsmen from Romania exhibiting pottery, musical instruments, traditional textiles, wood manufactures, masks, eggs and icons painting + plenty delicious Romanian traditional food and drinks.

Enjoy the Films – Watch & learn

Learn about highlights of Romanian culture from different films and documentaries

Sunday, June 24 - “Between Earth and Heaven on the Path of Souls” a documentary about the Romanian sculptor Constantin Brâncuși, the father figure of modern sculpture

Special guests – Cristina Liberis, cultural manager at The National Village Museum "Dimitrie Gusti" from Bucharest, and Lucian Dindirică, director of the "Alexandru și Aristia Aman" Library from Craiova.

Workshops – Try out your skills

With the reputed floral designers Anca Ungureanu and Ella Fodor

Exhibitions – Be inspired

- "Colours of Romania" – outdoor photo exhibition - 30 scenic photos by Sorin Onișor
- "Romanian traditions in the art of floral arrangements" – by Anca Ungureanu and Ella Fodor
- "More than Bread" – photo exhibition by Ana Negru
- "From Red to Black" – precious traditional costumes from the collection of The National Village Museum "Dimitrie Gusti" Bucharest, Romania

Music – All day long dance & sing along

Vibrating instrumental and vocal music performances with celebrated artists and ensembles from Romania and the Netherlands!

Saturday, June 23

12.00 -13.00 - Dana Alexe and Mihai Scarlat Ensemble (The Netherlands)
13.15 -14.15 - Giani Lincan Ensemble (The Netherlands)
14.30 – 15.30 - Mariana Stănescu (Romania)
15.45 – 16.45 - Ioana Marin (Romania)
17.00 – 18.00 - Ensemble Rapsodia Vâlceană (Romania)

Sunday, June 24

12.00 – 13.00 - Giani Lincan Ensemble (The Netherlands)
13.15 – 14.15 - Mariana Stănescu (Romania)
14.30 - 15.30 - Giani Lincan Ensemble (The Netherlands)
15.45 – 16.45 - Ioana Marin (Romania)
17.00 – 18.00 - Ensemble Rapsodia Vâlceană

More information at <https://www.hogeveluwe.nl/nl/agenda/roemeense-dagen> (in Dutch)